Veteran's Week Walk – November 4 By Jerry Wilson

The Dairyland Walkers last traditional walk of 2017 is on Saturday, November 4, 2017. Come join us! We start at the start point for the Capital Walk between 9:30 -11:00am, at the Park Hotel, 22 S. Carroll St., Madison. Walkers will follow the 10km or 6km route taking in Military Veteran points of interest around the capital square. We will also enjoy State Street and some of the UW Campus. Both routes end in the backroom at Plaza Tavern, 319 N. Henry St., Madison. 6km walkers will need to plan their start times because the finish table will not open until a little after 11:00 am.

For the 10km walkers, new in 2017 will include the UW Alumni Park. Opened October 6th many of us have yet to see this long awaited development. Also, after two years of having to walk around construction on Langdon Street and inside the Memorial Union, all construction has been completed. (6km walkers could add another KM to their route by crossing Library Mall to take in the new Alumni Park and then return to State Street to finish the shorter route.)

Walkers should plan on watching the November weather forecast, but both distances include many opportunities to warm up along the route and at the finish. Please plan to finish by 1:00 pm, other stops in the State Street area can be made after checking in and getting your books stamped.

While in the state capital building check out the rotunda display celebrating the 100th anniversary of the building! (Display comes down Nov. 7, before the Christmas Tree arrives.)

Help Others During the Holidays – December 6 Holiday Party By Joanne Reuter

This year, we again have the opportunity to help others by donating food to the Fritz Food Pantry at the Goodman Community Center. All you need to do is drop items off at the front desk area as you arrive for our holiday party on December 3rd. If you wish, you can complete a tax deduction form at that time. Here is a link to the food party website, which will provide you with some ideas of what to donate:

Mark Your Calendars!!

By Don Suloff

As next year's calendars begin arriving in your mail, now is the time to make sure that you block off the dates of the Dairyland Walkers events for 2018 which your board has just finalized. So break out those calendars and your pencils before reading on and start planning for another great year of walking.

Our year starts similarly to other years with a couple of mall walks to get us walking in spite of the weather. We will start at West Towne Mall this year on January 20, to be followed on February 17 with a walk in East Towne Mall. Next comes the popular Pie Walk starting again from St Luke's Lutheran Church in Middleton on March 17 (as close to 3.14 as we could get!) and featuring Hubbard Avenue Pie.

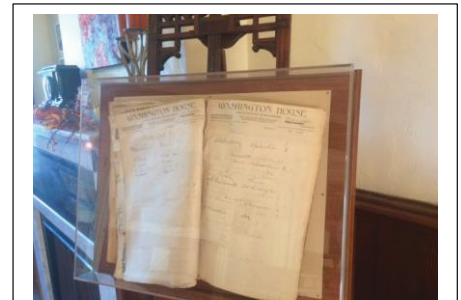

On April 28 we will participate in a new walk in DeForest featuring trails in Western Green Park and Veteran's Park and including a stroll around downtown DeForest. Our 2018 walking weekend will be on May 19 and 20. On the 19th we will walk in Shawano (Shawano County) walking through a number of city parks, past a restored railroad depot, through Woodlawn Cemetery and Heritage County Park, and along the Wolf River and spend the evening in Antigo. On the 20th we will walk in Antigo (Langlade County) walking through Queen of Peace Cemetery and a number of city parks, featuring the Springbrook Walking/Biking Path, and passing the Langlade County Seat and the Langlade County Historical Society Museum. Although not a formal part of the weekend walks, the Legend Lake (Menomonee County) and the Crandon (Forest) seasonal walks will be available.

With the summer well underway we will walk in Mazomanie (Dane County) on June 9, in Beaver Dam (Dodge County) on July 8, and Oregon (Dane County) on August 4.

We will not hold a Dairyland Walker event in September in order for our members to attend the North Central Regional Conference which will be held in the Minneapolis area from September 7-9. More information will be provided about this exciting weekend as it becomes available. In October we will walk through the beautiful Maple Bluff area on October 13 to be followed by our traditional Veterans Walk on November 10.

For a Special Stay – The Washington Inn, Cedarburg, WI By Jerry Wilson

In September we stayed at our club's walk box sponsor for the Cedarburg, WI walk. A very nice stay in a historic Inn. Some pictures below.

Don't Miss the Next Walking weekend!

By Don Suloff

Our walking weekends have become so popular that folks are already asking when and where our next event will be – so here it is! We will walk in Shawano (Shawano County) on Saturday, May 19th, with check-in time between 10 am and 1 pm, with all walkers to be finished by 3 pm. We will move north to Antigo to spend the night. Rooms will be blocked at the Super 8 in Antigo until April 19th with more information to come. The Super 8's phone number is (715) 623-4188. In addition to the popular wine and cheese party that evening at the motel (courtesy of Diane Thornbery and Joanne Reuter), we are tentatively looking at reserving space at a nearby restaurant for dinner. On Sunday, May 20th we will walk in Antigo (Langlade County) with registration available between 8 am and 11 am and finishing by 1 pm. Although the seasonal walks at Legend Lake (Menomonee County) and Crandon (Forest County) will not be a formal part of the weekend walks, Legend Lake is a short drive from Shawano and Crandon is a short drive from Antigo. Directions and maps will be available for these two walk at both Shawano and Antigo. All four of these walks are seasonal walks, but will be operated as remote start walks with Don Suloff (suloff@tds.net, 608 821-0263) the point of contact.

These walks represent counties 69, 70, 71, and 72 of the Wisconsin counties we will have conducted walks in! We did it!

For those still wishing to complete the 72-county program but have missed some counties, contact Don and he can get directions to you for making up.

On the Trail – A Capital City Walk on Total Eclipse Weekend

By Rosemary Sprenger

Jefferson City, Missouri, claims it was named “America’s most beautiful small town” by Rand McNally. With a population of 43,000 in 2016, this capital city doesn’t have a commercial airport. On Saturday, Aug. 19, I took a Delta flight from Madison to St. Louis via Minneapolis, Metrolink to the Amtrak station and then rode the 4 p.m. train to my destination. After arriving about 6:30 p.m., I didn’t wait for Checker Cab to pick me up. Instead, I walked up and down a few hills on a hot day to the Baymont Inn, resting briefly near the Lohman Opera House (1886).

After checking in at the inn, the start point of the walk, I registered for the 5K route. I’m glad I noticed a small piece of paper in the walk box informing walkers of a slight detour. Due to construction, the Greenway Trail was closed.

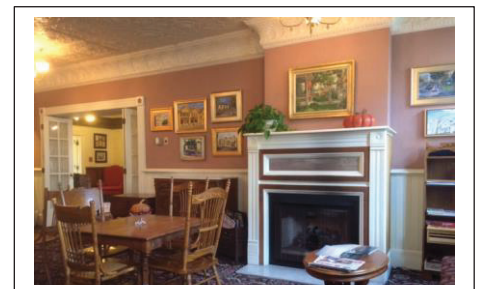

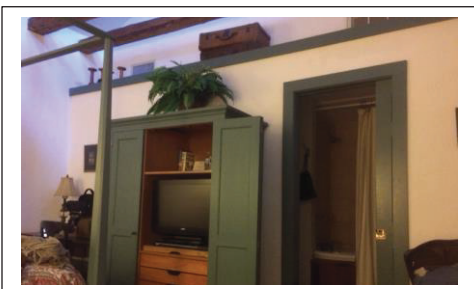

On Sunday, I did the walk after breakfast. I passed St. Peter Catholic Church, which has a tall steeple, and walked halfway around the capitol. At the Trailhead Plaza, I saw bronze figures of Meriwether Louis, William Clark, George Drouillard, York and dog Seaman looking toward the Missouri River, which they traced in 1804-1806. Then, I passed flowers at Carnahan Memorial Gardens and the Missouri Pacific Railroad Depot, which is closed to the public. I also passed the decommissioned state penitentiary. I couldn’t buy ice cream at Central Dairy—it opens at 10 a.m. on Sunday. At Dunklin and Broadway, I didn’t read the street signs and walked down a hill not on the route; a bicyclist informed me I had to go back up. After getting my luggage at the inn, a cab took me to the station for the 11:18 a.m. train to St. Louis.

In St. Louis, a YMCA Trout Lodge van took me and others to Potosi, Missouri, for a Road Scholar program called “Looking on the Bright Side: Peace, Joy and Lots of Laughter.” On Monday, we enjoyed the eclipse at 1:17 p.m. A t-shirt I tie-dyed that day is being worn to bed in warm weather, and I ordered a nicer eclipse t-shirt from Amazon’s website.

Jefferson City also had activities to celebrate the eclipse, but I didn’t do them. I also didn’t have time to visit the capitol, which “USA Today” ranked number 1 for “most beautiful interior.” Some buildings are on the National Register of Historic Places.

Dairyland Walkers Board Meeting Hawthorn Library Branch, 2707 E. Washington Ave., Madison, WI September 13, 2017

Members present: Diane Thornberry, Karen Reger, Russ Crane, Joanne Reuter, Mary Liebig, Kevin Moore, Don Suloff, Susan Wester, Doug Wiest, Tom Gundlach, Tricia Gundlach

Call to Order: The meeting was called to order at 5:59 p.m. by President Doug Wiest. The meeting's agenda was approved with one addition to Unfinished Business by Russ Crane, regarding an additional VIP program. The minutes of the 12 July 2017 Board meeting were adopted without change.

Officer Reports

President: No report.

Vice President: Doug reported for Terry Wendt that Hody's in Middleton will be the location for the October 11 General Membership meeting. The Goodman Center has been reserved for the holiday event on December 3, and the Lakeview Shelter for the 2018 picnic.

Secretary: Susan Wester will not be able to record minutes for the October General Membership meeting due to vacation plans.

Treasurer: Doug Wiest reported for Treasurer Kristi Kenyon. Income for the month was $453.00, with $323.00 from events, $104.00 from coupons and sales, and $26.00 from dues and donations. Expenses for the period were $752.50, due entirely to AVA participation fees. The 13 September balance is $5,615.28, representing a change of -$299.50 from the previous month's balance. The Treasurer's report was accepted and filed for audit.

Kristi plans to complete IRS ePostcard filing and the AVA annual financial report by the end of the month.

Director at Large: No report.

Other Reports

Membership Chair: Mary Liebig recently emailed a revised membership list to Board members. There are a number of new members, some through a Meet

Up group in Madison. Recent Dairyland Walker events have been posted on this Meet Up site.

Sanctioned Event Coordinator: No report.

Trailmaster: Don Suloff presented a draft of the 2018 schedule. The dates for the Oregon and Maple Bluff walks are yet to be determined. The Badger schedule has created some conflict with picking dates. Russ suggested October 13 be the date for the Maple Bluff walk as otherwise it would be in conflict with the Mid America regional conference. There are no walks scheduled in September 2018 to encourage people to attend the North Central Regional Conference in Minnesota.

For the May 2018 walking weekend, there will be a walk in Shawano on Saturday, followed by an optional one in Menomonee. Lodging for Saturday night will be in Antigo. Don informally polled attendees on their preference for motels, as there is a $30 difference in rate between the Holiday Inn Express and the Super 8. A number of people expressed the opinion that the Super 8 would be preferable. The 2018 event will be the weekend before Memorial Day weekend.

Publicity Chair: No report.

Volunteer Coordinator: No report.

Newsletter Editor: Doug reported for Jerry Wilson that October 20 is the latest submittal date for the next newsletter's articles. He must receive them no later than this in order to put out the newsletter before a planned absence.

Website Administrator: Kevin Moore said he is still trying to get access to the website calendar.

AVA Electronic Sanctioning Volunteer: Tom Gundlach said everything is completed for 2018 YRE and seasonal walks. He will get the East Towne walk sanctioned soon. The remainder will be done when details are finalized.

Special Projects: Diane Thornberry presented on Google Suite online storage, giving reference handouts to attendees. She said five Board members still need to sign into Google Suite. Five accounts have been created within it to aid in the storage of documents. These include Directions, Membership, Minutes, Newsletters and Treasurer. Each of these accounts has folders within, and Diane has entered some data into each. All can be seen, shared and printed but cannot be edited. Certain people will be able to add documents, such as the secretary can add minutes to Minutes account. More accounts (e.g., Walk Box account) can be created in the future if necessary. Any ideas for additional accounts should be given to Diane. Diane would like Kevin to be her back up as administrator for Google Suite.

Russ said he has 4,000-5,000 Dairyland Walker files. He will choose a couple hundred to begin the online archive process.. Documents not in electronic format can be scanned, formatted as a pdf and dropped into Google Suite. Diane offered to scan documents for people.

Diane has been unable to work on a group trip to the North Central Regional Conference in September 2018 because she is still awaiting necessary information.

Special Reports:

Nomination Committee (for 2018 club officers): Doug reported for Terry and Tom McCrill that there are 5 candidates for 5 positions. These are the same people who currently occupy the slots. Additional nominations will be called for at the October Annual meeting. Mary will send an email with the information as well.

Appointed leadership positions: All have agreed to continue in their roles, except for Tricia Gundlach (volunteer position). She will ask others on the Volunteer committee if any are interested in assuming this position at the next committee meeting.

Unfinished Business:

Newsletter articles: For the November-December newsletter, Doug will write on accomplishments, Don will introduce the 2018 calendar and ask sponsors to write up the Veterans' Day and Christmas walks. Joanne Reuter will do an article on the Goodman Center food pantry and include a link to acceptable items for donation. Mary will provide a membership update.

VIP and other program books: Russ inquired as to whether the Board wished to pursue the previously discussed possibility of an additional special program for 2018. In addition to including 5-6 walks, it would also recognize other activities, such as trash pick up. After discussion, Don moved that Russ be authorized to create a club activity booklet for a new special program, to include club events, walks, general membership meetings and trash pickups, with the award being 2 coupons for the next year's walks. The motion was seconded and approved unanimously. The plan for now is that this will be an annual program. It was noted that the new booklet would need to be mailed in January, along with Blue and VIP books. The new program will be presented at the Christmas meeting and in the January- February newsletter.

New Business:Recognition to those who have completed all of Wisconsin's 72 counties:

Russ reported that he is in the process of designing a patch to be given to those who complete the Wisconsin County walk program. There was some discussion as to whether the reward for completion should be something other than a patch. However, Diane reviewed the program booklet at the meeting and noted that it specifically states a patch will be awarded upon completion.

Opt Outside Walk 24 November: Mary said the recent Checkpoint indicated Missy McBride, AVA Program Committee, should be informed by September 30 of club events scheduled for Black Friday. These will be placed on the AVA and some social media websites. Susan thought perhaps Cindy had expressed an interest previously and will look into it.

Online Start Box Committee: Joanne, Tricia and Cindy Haagensen met recently (Kristi is also on the committee). They would like to move forward with the online registration system in a small way, by starting with one walk with higher walker numbers. Hence, Milwaukee was chosen as the place to begin the process. Tricia is willing to be the AVA point of contact. In anticipation of this change, it may be necessary to walk people through this at a membership or other meeting. The club must also set up a PayPal account. The $3 walk fees will be sent to the California Volkssport Association (CVA)*. At the end of the quarter, Dairyland Walkers' Paypal account will be reimbursed. Tricia will be able to accept payment from those people unable to use Paypal. Special club programs such as the VIP program can be specified; AVA special programs are automatically included.

*The CVA currently has an operable system for online registration and is willing to allow other clubs to use it until the AVA has established one of its own.

Adjourn: The meeting was adjourned at 7:46 p.m. by President Wiest.

Next Board meeting – Wednesday, 8 November 2017, Lakeview Branch Library
Next (Annual) Membership Meeting – Wednesday, 11 October 2017, Hody's Bar & Grill, Middleton, WI.
Next Special Event Walks:
--Firefighters Park walk, Middleton, WI, Saturday, 23 September 2017
